

Meeting Minutes
COPAMA Board meeting
November 30, 2022
6:00 – 7:30 PM
Earl & Carol Redmond's Home

Attending: Joe Lippert, Charles Jenkins, Earl Redmond, Bill Otte, Lowell Dowler, Robert Everette, Christopher Deem, Gene Sprang.

Scholarship:

Current scholarship awards expire on December 31, 2022. Andrew Ormiston and Ryan Fruner's award will be extended as they are currently working on certification testing. A final check was made for Matthew VanOrder.

CSCC AMT students Abigail Rhodes, Austin Novak, Jackson Wollenburg, Jonathan Sanchez, Marcus Zullo and Noah Alloy were awarded $1375.00 to cover testing. This amount will cover the current cost of all A&P certification testing. These awards expire 12/31/2023, however, Mr. Sanchez and Mr. Zullo will not complete powerplant until February 2024. Therefore, it was decided to extend their awards until 6/30/2024.

Treasurer's Report:

Earl Redmond reported a treasury balance of $21,692.00

Board Election:

Lowell Dowler, Gene Sprang and Christopher Deem agreed to continue on the board.

Earl Redmond is retiring from the board for health reasons.

Bill Otte was elected to the board.

2023 Officers:

Chuck Jenkins, President
Christopher Deem, Vice-President
Lowell Dowler, Treasurer
Gene Sprang, Secretary

Other Business:

Robby Everette gave an update on AMT curriculum changes brought about by changes to 14CFR part 147. Columbus State Community College Aviation Maintenance Technology is currently working on course revisions and changing from 5 week terms to 8 week terms.

A discussion was held regarding reviving the Central Ohio Aviation Golf Outing in 2023. Bill Otte and Joe Lippert will work on finding potential dates that would not conflict with other aviation related golf outings. Final decision to be made in the Spring.

Chuck Jenkins announced Paul Gillenwater is planning to have COPAMA's assistance in the Ohio Aviation Maintenance Symposium to be held March 20, 2023. An organizational meeting is planned for Monday, December 5, Eastland Career center, 3 PM.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the group gave Earl Redmond a round of applause for his many years of service on the COPAMA board and as treasurer.

(After the meeting, in a review of records, I find Earl was elected to the board in 2010. He became treasurer in 2012)

Respectfully Submitted by;
Gene Sprang, Secretary.
